Three Special Features of the 1955 Session of the Washington Conference

1. CELEBRATED SIXTIETH ANNIVERSARY

The Washington Conference began in 1895 when the original Pacific Northwest Conference was divided into three conferences. Its first session was held in 1896. The 1955 session, therefore, was the Sixtieth Session. Of particular note in reviewing its sixty years is the growth during the last decade. The full membership at the time of its Golden Anniversary in 1945 was 2,231 (not counting ministers). Now, 10 years later its full membership is 3,185 (an increase of 42.5%). This growth, it is believed, makes the Washington Conference the largest in full members of any conference in North America.

Of particular interest also is the fact that (since such statistics have been kept) the record shows the number of preparatory members entering into "full connection" has been more than six times greater than the net gain of transfer of members from other Free Methodist Conferences (not counting the mass transfer this year from the Alberta Conference).

2. RECEIVED NEW DISTRICT FROM ALBERTA CONFERENCE

Because the pastors and people of the British Columbia District of the Alberta Conference have had to travel extreme distances in order to reach conference gatherings and since the travel conditions are easier to the Washington Conference, the leaders of that district more than a year ago requested permission from the Alberta Conference to transfer to the Washington Conference. Such permission, with much regret, was granted. The transfer, approved by the recent General Conference, was consummated at the 1955 Session of the Washington Conference. The transfer brought into this conference 3 ministers, 4 societies, 104 full members (including 11 junior members), and 50 preparatory members. It also added a further area to what was already the largest conference in North America by way of territory. The Washington Conference now includes the western portion of the State of Washington, all of British Columbia and Alaska.

3. LAUNCHED NEW FIVE-YEAR EVANGELISTIC PLAN

The Forward Movement of the Free Methodist Church was launched in 1944. Three years prior to that date the Washington Conference attempted to launch its own forward movement when it inaugurated a Five-Year-Plan with Rev. Lyle W. Northrup as Promoter. That effort though somewhat disappointing at the time is now seen to have played a real part in preparing the way for the splendid advance which has been experienced by the conference in more recent years. Indeed, it is with a degree of pride that the Washington Conference now observes Rev. Northrup, as General Secretary of Evangelism, leading the entire church in "THE CHALLENGE OF THE CENTURY."

All departments of the conference have joined in the new Five-Year Program. These include the Sunday Schools, the W.M.S., the F.M.Y., the Men's Fellowship, Seattle Pacific College and others. The essential theme of the Plan is Adult Evangelism with Reaching the Entire Family as the principal strategy. Such a program will make possible the opening of sturdy new societies and wholesome growth of those already organized. A goal of a 10% gain each year in church membership has been set.

The Woman's Missionary Society The sixty-year story of the W.M.S. in the Washington Conference is one of encouragement and inspiration. There have been but seven presidents, including Mrs. Florence Cartwright, who has held the office since 1951. The membership has grown steadily being in 1955: Active, 1,023; Honorary, 210. Money raised in 1954-55 was $29,523 or $28.84 per member. The amount per member sixty years ago was $1.35. Something of a record in years of service has been achieved by the W.M.S. treasurer, Mrs. Eunice Wyler, who is beginning her 25th year in this office. The newest society is in Valdez, Alaska. The Washington Conference with its stress on missions through Seattle Pacific College, the W.M.S., the Sunday Schools, and the F.M.Y. has an enviable record in regard to missionaries called, educated and appointed.

The Free Methodist Youth began as the Y.P.M.S. in this conference about 1919. Since that time the organization has had gradual, but steady gains. At the conference's Golden Jubilee in 1945, 765 members were reported, with $5,654 raised for missions. Now after 10 more years we humbly say, "Behold what God hath wrought." During this last decade 503 members were added. This is two-thirds as great a gain as was registered in all the previous years. The total giving in 1954-55 was $13,392. Joining with the Conference Five-Year Evangelistic Plan the F.M.Y. voted: (1) to set 1200 as the active membership goal by 1960, an increase of 70%; (2) to continue paying the president's college tuition; (3) to endeavor to support two missionary families by 1960, and (4) to strengthen home evangelistic projects.

Central British Columbia District Welcomed

One of the high points in the 60th Session of the Washington Conference was completing the transfer of the British Columbia District of the Alberta Conference to the Washington Conference.

Top Picture. At right, Bishop Marston welcomes the three transferring ministers, George Schnell, J. H. James and W. S. Angell. Retiring Superintendent R. S. Nelson (newly elected General S. S. Secretary) and Superintendent B. T. Root look on with evident satisfaction.

Special Sitting for Reports of Superannuates

Fourteen members of the Washington Conference are superannuates. Five were unable to be present at a special "Order of the Day" to honor the group. Most of those absent sent written reports and one sent a recorded report. Those absent were H. F. Aiken, C. I. Herrin, E. G. Kerby, John Timbers and F. M. Wees.

Lower Picture. A. E. Warren (left) shaking hands with W. W. Dexter, the only living member of the First Session of the Washington Conference 60 years ago. To the great joy of everyone A. E. Warren once again sang "I'll say 'Amen' to Jesus . . ." Great blessing fell on the conference.
